JUDO

ABU DHABI WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS
JUNIORS AND TEAMS 2015

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

The world's best young judoka are making their way to Abu Dhabi, UAE, for the biggest event of their young careers, at the Junior World Championships from 23-27 October.

The event is our fourth and final World Championships of 2015 following cadet, senior and veteran events in August and September.

Many athletes will be competing at an IJF event for the first time and see this event as a stepping stone towards senior success. We are all here to support these young judoka and give them encouragement and a positive environment to show their skills which have enabled them to compete on the world stage in this age group.

Judo fans can expect to see a first glimpse of future world and Olympic champions and the transition from the junior to senior level is becoming more and more visible with a strong network of junior events now established in all continents.

We are expecting a very strong entry which will once again illustrate how far and wide judo reaches as a truly global sport and educational tool.

Our hosts, UAE Wrestling and Judo Federation, have always shown great hospitality to the judo family and I thank them for their work and team's achievements on the World Judo Tour.

On behalf of the IJF, I wish good luck to all of the countries and athletes. I wish them to show unity and all the values which judo has instilled in them in their lives.

H.E. Mohammed
Bin Tha'aloob
Al Dirai
President of UAE
Judo Federation

We are honoured that IJF has granted Abu Dhabi the rights to host the World Championships Juniors and Teams this year. We are delighted to welcome all the young and promising judokas to this event and we believe this will be a big stepping-stone for them before they progress to the Seniors level.

This will be our first World Championships Juniors and Teams event, and with the experience of conducting several Grand Prix, and a Grand Slam last year, we believe this will be yet another spectacular event in Abu Dhabi.

We are also delighted to welcome all the IJF EC members and the staff, National Federations and their officials and delegates and coaches, referees and all others to this great event. We hope you will all enjoy your stay here and witness and be part of a great sporting event.
