World Judo Tour

JUDO

GRAND PRIX
Düsseldorf, 2015

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

After a winter break the IJF World Judo Tour 2015 opens in Dusseldorf, Germany with the first of 11 Grand Prix events.

The long-running Grand Prix is one of the most established events on the circuit and is the perfect place to launch the Tour for 2015 as the Paris Grand Slam has, for one year only, moved to October 2015.

As the first IJF event of the year, all countries will be ready to make an impression and start their competition programme on a positive note. We can expect increased participation in 2015 with the Olympic Games just a year away and this greater level of intensity will be on show in Dusseldorf.

I would like to thank the German Judo Federation for their continued efforts in staging this event and for being great ambassadors of the IJF World Judo Tour. I would like to take the opportunity to wish all nations, athletes, coaches, officials and staff a successful year and I look forward to seeing you all in the near future.

Peter Frese
President
German Judo
Federation

On behalf of the German Judo Federation it is a great pleasure for me to welcome all participants, team members and guests of the judo world for the Düsseldorf Grand Prix 2015.

The focus of this sports year will be the forthcoming Olympic Games 2016 in Rio de Janeiro. The Grand Prix in Düsseldorf will be the perfect stage for each athlete to present himself for this great event.

I hope you will enjoy these Championships and wish all participants, team members and guests an interesting and fair tournament.

My special thanks go to all partners, sponsors and to all those who have worked hard for organizing the Grand Prix event.
