JUDO

BUDAPEST GRAND PRIX 2015

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

The second edition of the Budapest Grand Prix is a key event on the IJF World Judo Tour 2015.

Hungary's capital city will host the World Championships in 2017 and points earned at the Grand Prix this year will count 100% towards qualification for the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

Budapest is also home to the IJF Presidential Office and it is ideal to hold such a high-profile event in a city which has been so supportive of our sport.

The Hungarian Judo Federation has held many world-class judo events and the spotlight will be on the Budapest Grand Prix 2015 with the incentive of winning points for Rio 2016 and looking ahead to the World Championships 2017 as well as the allure of this special city.

The Hungarian team are renowned on the IJF circuit and will be among the favourites to top the medal table in June.

I hold the Hungarian Judo Federation and its President Dr. Laszlo Toth in great esteem and I'm pleased to continue our series of events in the city.

I wish good luck to the organisers and all athletes. The IJF and organising team will all be here to support your teams and I trust that together we will all show judo in its highest light.

Dr. László Tóth
President
Hungarian Judo
Association

Dear Judo Friends,

Let me welcome everyone in the Budapest Grand Prix on behalf of the Hungarian Judo Association. This is the second Grand Prix in Budapest. We were very happy, when we informed, that the first Judo Grand Prix in Budapest was the second best organised event in Judo World Tour in 2014.

The Hungarian judo achieved various successes in the past few years, having our competitors won numerous medals in the World and European Championships, throughout almost all of the age categories. Our performance at the London Olympic Games was also outstanding, having Ms. Éva Csernoviczki won the first Hungarian Olympic medal to the feminine judo in Hungary and Mr. Miklós Ungvári placing second in his own category.

We are more than happy to be given the opportunity to organize the World Championships in 2017! I hope, we will meet with you on this event!

Due to our successes a Sports Developing Program has started this year between the Hungarian Government and the Hungarian Judo Association, bearing a significant support to our sport. I hope that all of the participants and visitors will be able to notice the development of the Hungarian judo year after year at the Budapest Grand Prix.

I wish a memorable and very spectacular competition and all the best to the participants!
