COMPETITION RULES

WORDS OF WELCOME

Sergey Soloveychik
President
European Judo Union

Dear Judo Friends,

I am delighted to welcome you to Malaga and personally very pleased to have the opportunity visit this exciting city once more.

Each staging of a Junior European Championships is a wonderful mix of newcomers, slightly more experienced youngsters and those for whom this event will mark a final transition point to senior competitive judo. This all makes for a fascinating period for our young judoka and one that we in the EJU are very careful to nurture.

For this reason I am indebted to the Spanish Judo Federation for its exceptional efforts to stage this major event with the highest possible standards. I am confident that athletes and spectators will have a rewarding and fulfilling experience visiting Malaga and wish you all a successful and enjoyable competition.

Juan Carlos BARCOS
President
Spanish Judo Federation

Dear Judo Friends,

I am glad to greet you, organizers, guests, and participants of the Junior European Judo Championships 2016. We are honored that the Europe Judo Union has selected once again one of the most beautiful cities of Spain, Málaga, and this time one of the major event in its Sports Calendar.

Málaga has hosted several International judo events over the last years (6th IJF World Veterans Judo Championships and IJF World Kata Championships in 2014), and it is hosting several nowadays (European Judo Cup Seniors and OTC Going for Gold, since 2013). So, I am convinced that with the cooperation of the European Judo Union this Championship will be on the high organizational and sports level and will become a great event for all the judo family as well as a great platform for a new generation of champions seeking to establish themselves as stars of tomorrow.

I would like to wish good luck to all the judokas, coaches, referees and the staff. May the guests and the media enjoy their stay in Málaga, follow with great interest the results of the competition and share moments of judo living and live moments of strong and unforgettable emotions.

Welcome to Málaga.
