JUDO

World Judo Tour

GRAND SLAM
Paris, 2016

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

I look forward to meeting the international judo family in France for the first Grand Slam of the Olympic year of 2016.

The Paris Grand Slam is an integral part of the World Judo Tour and the stage is set for the 2016 edition to truly be the greatest Paris tournament of all time. In October 2015, the last Paris Grand Slam was held in the new-look AccorHotels Arena (formerly Bercy). The modernised venue has now been in use for a number of months and will be brimming with special attractions, an engaged sell-out-crowd and will be a defining moment in the build-up to the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

I would like to share my tremendous appreciation for the continued diligence of the French Judo Federation and their willingness to put on an unforgettable event for every member of the judo family.

I wish you all a successful and enjoyable time in France and the IJF team will be at your disposal throughout your time in Paris.

Mr. Jean-Luc
ROUGE
President of the
French Judo
Federation

Welcome to Paris,

On this road in the direction of Rio we welcome you in Paris.

We sincerely thank the delegations for their presence and their commitment in this new edition.

In this rough period, the sport generally and Judo in particular, should be a unifying link around the core values which are dear to us.

We wish all an excellent Paris Grand Slam 2016.

A quite particular thought for our national teams who will have their hearts set on dully representing France.

Further to the attacks of last November in Paris, the French government has decreed THE STATE OF EMERGENCY until February 23rd, 2016.

The consequences are as follows:

- stricter visa procedures
- reinforced security controls of access
- control of financial flows (to favour bank transfers rather than payments in cash)

Thank you for your understanding.
