#JudoDüsseldorf2019

Düsseldorf Grand Slam, Germany

@MariusVizer

Dear Judo Friends,

The IJF World Judo Tour 2019 gathers pace this month with Germany the location for our second Grand Slam of the month and third event of the season.

Germany is one of the most famous legs on the IJF World Judo Tour and Düsseldorf was upgraded to a Grand Slam last year as it attracts the world's top judoka and has a well-deserved reputation for being one of the highlights of the calendar.

Tokyo 2020 Olympic qualification is well underway with the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games a little over a year away and all are judoka are giving their all with the hope of securing qualification and selection for the next Olympiad.

Düsseldorf is a crucial stop on the road to the Games and also to the Tokyo 2019 World Judo Championships. Olympic and world champions will be in action in Germany and judo fans can look forward to a spectacular event.

I would like to thank German Judo Federation for their fine efforts in developing, promoting and hosting this Grand Slam. I would like to wish good luck to all the competing countries, athletes, coaches, officials and staff.

Marius L. VIZER

President

International Judo Federation

22-24 February 2019

Dear Judo Friends,

On behalf of the German Judo-Federation (DJB) I would like to welcome you to the Judo Grand Slam in Germany. After 2018 we have the chance to host this amazing sports event in the world renowned City Düsseldorf for the second time. Athletes, coaches and spectators can look forward to a perfectly organized and exciting competition.

The ISS Dome is our new home and the perfect place for this tournament. The new competition hall offers more space and perfect conditions for a sports event like the Judo Grand Slam. We are proud to welcome you in one of the biggest sports halls in Düsseldorf.

The Judo Grand Slam in Düsseldorf is one of the highlights in the calendar year 2019. Athletes as well as spectators and enthusiastic Judo fans will be part of a spectacular sports event. In addition to Olympic champions as well as World- and European champions there will be many more international top-athletes competing for the medals.

I would like to thank the International Judo Federation (IJF) for their support and the good and close cooperation. Furthermore another thanks goes to the host-city Düsseldorf which stands for hospitality, sporty emotions and vitality as typical for the Rhine-region. Our sport is well established in the state capital of North Rhine-Westphalia. Since last year we are part of the Grand Slam Series and the German Judo-Federation is proud to host this unique tournament.

Carrying out the Judo Grand Slam 2019 means a great challenge for the German Judo Federation, the staff and the volunteers. But the whole team is well attuned and we will host a perfect competition. Thanks to all the volunteers. It would not be possible to organize such a great sports event without you!

I'm looking forward to exciting and fair competitions in a friendly atmosphere.

Peter FRESE
President
German Judo Federation

IMPORTANT: For prize money to be paid each medallist must bring a copy of their passport and their personal tax number to the awarding ceremony.

Düsseldorf Grand Slam, Germany

12. DOPING CONTROL

Doping control will include: Four (4) men and four (4) women by random selection.

The draw is carried out in accordance with the IJF Anti-doping Rules and the IJF SOR during the competition before the start of the final block on the first competition day.

Competitors must report to the Doping Control Station immediately after signing the Notification form.

Pursuant to WADA ISTI Art. 5.4.4, prior to doping control, athletes can take part in the awarding ceremony and fulfill their press commitments or receive medical treatment if needed. The selected competitors will be constantly accompanied by an official chaperone (appointed by the organising committee) from the time of notification until arriving at the Doping Control Station. A person of the athlete's choice (team doctor, coach, trainer, delegation head etc.) may accompany them.

IJF keep the right to test any participating athlete beyond the above selection during an event. All additional tests are deemed in-competition tests.

13. GENERAL INFORMATION

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

All National Federations, officials, coaches and athletes participating in the event described in these outlines must respect and accept the authority of the IJF Officials, the IJF Statutes, the IJF Sports and Organisation Rules (SOR), the IJF Refereeing Rules and the IJF Anti-Doping Rules. Individuals deemed to have acted against the IJF, its principles or purposes should be subject to suspension or expulsion from the event and/or cancellation of their accreditation cards.

INSURANCE

Each National Federation is responsible for its competitors (the control of non-pregnancy as well as the control of gender are placed under the responsibility of the National Federations) and must assume all responsibility for accident and health insurance as well as the civil liabilities for their competitors and officials, during the event described in these outlines.

The organiser of the event and the IJF will not be responsible for any insurance related to the above-mentioned matters. Nevertheless, the National Judo Federation staging the event shall take all necessary actions to provide insurance coverage against civil liability for the entire duration.

The organiser of the event and the IJF have no liability for any claims of injury, illness or death arising from the travelling to and the participation in this event.

ACCOMMODATION

All delegates inscribed for an IJF WJT event must stay in one of the official hotels, offered in the outlines by the organisers, for a minimum of two (2) nights. This rule does not apply to the host National Federation delegates. Any damage to hotel property resulting from the stay of a national delegation will be charged to the national federation and must be paid in full.

22-24 February 2019

Delegations are kindly requested not to dry clothing (including judogi) or have training sessions in the corridors of the official hotels.

According to the IJF rule enacted on the 2 December 2012 in Tokyo, “the organising country should not request penalties fee for participating countries who cannot make bank transfers but can pay in cash upon arrival. Those countries who cannot make bank transfers should inform the organisers well in advance that they will pay cash on arrival”.

COMPETITION RULES

The competition will be conducted in accordance with the latest IJF SOR, IJF Refereeing Rules and IJF Anti-Doping Rules.

System of competition: quarterfinal (last 8) repechage, duration of contests: four (4) minutes (real time).

Weight categories: Men -60kg, -66kg, -73kg, -81kg, -90kg, -100kg, +100kg
Women: -48kg, -52kg, -57kg, -63kg, -70kg, -78kg, +78kg

INSCRIPTION OF DELEGATES

Competitors can only be entered in one weight category and only entries of IJF member national judo federations will be accepted.

Participating athletes must be born in 2004 (15 years in the calendar year) or before. When travelling with minors the team official / coach must have all the necessary documents in place to say that they are acting on behalf of the parents/guardians “in loco parentis”.

Each National Federation can inscribe a maximum of two (2) athletes per weight category. The organising national federation can inscribe a maximum of four (4) athletes per weight category.

Non-competing athletes or training partners can be inscribed as judoka.

Inscription of all participants must be done using the IJF online registration system at <https://www.judobase.org>. The final deadline for inscription is 20 days before the draw.

All athletes and officials must be entered on time. National federations missing the registration deadline will not be allowed to start and no exceptions will be made! Changes can be made one to one, like for like, due to injury or illness. For example, an injured athlete can be replaced by another athlete regardless of gender or weight category. An ill team official can be replaced by another team official etc.

For any support please contact registration@ijf.org before the end of the deadline.

ACCREDITATION

The purpose of accreditation is to identify people and their roles at events and allow them necessary access to perform their roles.

Düsseldorf Grand Slam, Germany

At least one team delegate must attend on time to confirm the entries of all athletes and officials with his signature on the delegation confirmation list. A delayed appearance or no-show may result in the exclusion of all participants from the draw and the event. In case of unforeseen delay of arrival, the National Federation must immediately contact both the organiser and the IJF registration team (registration@ijf.org).

For each official team member from a national delegation (athletes, coach, team official, doctor etc.) an accreditation card is issued by the IJF during the official registration. A delegate should never wear another delegate's accreditation card. The accreditation card remains the property of the IJF and can be withdrawn, with immediate effect, at the IJF's sole discretion.

The accreditation card is valid for the duration of the competition and is the personal identity document of the delegate for all security and access controls. This card contains: last (family) name, first (given) name, country, IJF ID number, a picture and for athletes their weight category and WRL position.

Quota for officials for accreditations (includes team officials, coaches, doctors and physiotherapists):

One – four (1-4) competitors = three (3) officials.

Five – nine (5-9) competitors = five (5) officials.

10 or more competitors = seven (7) officials.

The functions president, referee and judoka are not included in the above calculation.

Other accreditations for team officials (who must be inscribed in judobase) can be requested for a fee of 100 US$ per accreditation. This fee should be paid to the organisers.

DRAW

Each National Federation must send at least one delegate to attend the draw. A maximum of three (3) delegates per National Federation (2 officials and 1 athletes' delegate) will be authorised.

The top eight (8) athletes from the entered competitors in each weight category will be seeded according to the current World Ranking List.

Dress code: formal suit (jacket, trousers, shirt and tie for men; jacket, trousers/skirt/dress, blouse for women) and formal shoes.

WEIGH-IN

The weigh-in will be carried out in accordance with the IJF SOR. The official weigh-in for athletes will be scheduled the day before the competition.

- Unofficial weigh-in: 19:30 to 20:00
- Official weigh-in: 20:00 to 20:30

22-24 February 2019

JUDOGI CONTROL

For further information on judogi rules please refer to the IJF SOR. Each competitor is obliged to have sewn on the back of his/her judogi a backnumber bearing his surname and his/her National Olympic Committee abbreviation. The backnumbers must be fixed horizontally and centred on the back of the judogi. They must be placed at a distance of 3 cm from the bottom of the collar. The backnumber can only be ordered from www.ijfbacknumber.com or www.mybacknumber.com.

The Education and Coaching Commission will inspect the judogi jacket every evening. The checking process will start half an hour prior to the unofficial weigh-in and will end at the same time as the official weigh-in (19:00 – 20:30).

The backnumber and publicity should comply with the current IJF judogi regulations. The official sponsor label of the event will be given provided that:

- The judogi are clean and dry.
- The backnumber, publicity and emblem are properly sewn and do not show any wear or tear.
- All previous advertising has been removed.

Guide to attaching and removing the sponsor label:

- Lay the judogi flat and attach the new sponsor label of the event on the back of the correct judogi.

White judogi: IJF sponsor, blue judogi: Organiser's sponsor

- Ensure the label is firmly attached around the edges.

Immediately after the competition and before washing remove the sponsor label.

COACHING

Coaches nominated by their National Federations should respect the IJF Code of Ethics and IJF SOR. Any coaches not adhering to these rules could be subject to disciplinary action.

AWARDING CEREMONY

Each athlete who has won a medal must be present at the ceremony to receive their medal personally. Any athlete who is absent from the awards ceremony without a good reason may forfeit the medal and prize money.

Athletes must attend the medal ceremony barefoot, without any hat, cap or any similar head covering and wearing their IJF approved white judogi that conforms to the IJF judogi rules with special attention being paid to the publicity rule. If it is not clean, then they must wear a reserve judogi. It is strictly prohibited for athletes on the podium to have national flags or similar items other than those on their judogi. Any demonstration with religious, political, personal or commercial connotation is prohibited.

Düsseldorf Grand Slam, Germany

For each event the amount of prize money can be found in the outlines. For the prize money to be paid, each medallist must bring a copy of their passport and their personal tax number to the awarding ceremony. Prize money will be given to the athletes who are then responsible to give 20% to their coach.

Athletes must also be available for interview after the last awarding ceremony if requested by the IJF Media Team.
